

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN VOLUNTEERING FOR A TV SERIES?

Have you sought help for a mental health condition?
(such as PTSD, Anxiety, Bipolar Disorder, Depression)

Have you tried a number of different therapy options and would like to try something new?

Are you open to being a part of a small group and trying something different with the potential for change?

BBC Studios Australia are making a new television series with the Black Dog Institute.

You would need to be available in Sydney in November and commit to filming for approx. 15 days.
