

NSW Aboriginal Mental Health and Wellbeing Workforce Forum 2023

Tune in, To Country

SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

Far West New South Wales Local Health District (FWNSWLHD) will be hosting the forum (funded by the NSW Ministry of Health) in partnership with the Aboriginal Health and Medical Research Council. The Forum will be held on the 17th & 18th of May 2023 at the Broken Hill Civic Centre, Broken Hill.

The Forum brings the NSW Aboriginal Mental Health and Social and Emotional Wellbeing Workforce, both government and community controlled, together to:

- Network and discuss mental health and social and emotional wellbeing matters, including relevant policy and program developments.
- Undertake and contribute to our professional development.
- Receive and provide peer support with like-minded professionals.
- Share stories about successful initiatives and learn how they were implemented.
- Highlight effective partnerships at the community level.
- Contribute to service development in order to improve the mental health and social and emotional wellbeing of Aboriginal people in NSW, and
- Provide feedback to assist in planning future forums.

The Forum attracts up to 200 delegates enjoying a diverse and stimulating program during the two-day event. This is an opportunity to support sector development in improving outcomes for Aboriginal mental health and Closing the Gap.

A choice of sponsorship and trade display opportunities are now available. They provide your organisation with the opportunity to reach, in one location, a wide range of Aboriginal Mental Health and Social and Emotional Wellbeing Professionals from across NSW.

Additional opportunities can be negotiated. For further information and to secure sponsorship, please contact forum organisers The Hotel Network 02 9414 4900 or conference@hotelnetwork.com.au if any further information would be helpful.
